DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's request for reconsideration of the finality of the rejection of the last Office action is persuasive and, therefore, the finality of that action is withdrawn.

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1-17 and 22-34, drawn to a method of and a computer readable media bearing instructions executable to carry out a method of operating an ATM to sense failure to deliver a first receipt, sense failure to deliver a second receipt, and generate malfunction or receipt jam signal responsive to both failures, classified in class 235, subclass 379.
  - II. Claim 18-20 and 35, drawn to a method of operating an ATM to sense jammed condition of a first receipt, sending a second receipt, determining whether the first receipt becomes freed from the jammed condition in response to the sending of the second receipt, and generate malfunction signal, classified in class 235, subclass 379.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions of Groups I and II are related as combination and subcombination.

Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed (i.e. Group I) does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed (i.e. Group II) because the combination does not necessarily requires, among other things, the particular step of determining whether the first receipt becomes freed from the jammed condition in response to the sending of the second receipt. The subcombination has separate utility such that the method can be used so that the malfunction signal can be generated without both the first and second receipts being in jammed condition.

Restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper because all these inventions listed in this action are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious search and examination burden if restriction were not required because one or more of the following reasons apply:

- (a) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification;
- (b) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter;
- (c) the inventions require a different field of search (for example, searching different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries);
- (d) the prior art applicable to one invention would not likely be applicable to another invention;
- (e) the inventions are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and/or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected invention.

If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable upon the elected invention.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

A telephone call was made to Attorney Daniel Wasil (45,303) on 11/12/09 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but the Attorney requested the restriction requirement in writing.

Applicant is reminded that upon cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 C.F.R. § 1.48(B) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a diligently-filed petition under 37 C.F.R. § 1.48(B) and by the fee required under 37 C.F.R. § 1.17(h).
